

Notice for Kent County Orphans Court Records

Please note that beginning Monday, November 26th the Kent County Orphans Court Records are in the process of being imaged. This means that some records may not be available at the time of your visit. If you anticipate needing specific Kent County Orphans Court records, we suggest that you call or email us prior to your visit. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we continue with this project.